Pioneers Eagerly Anticipate Movie Night Out, First VeggieTales Movie

On Sunday, October 6, the Pioneer Clubs at Bethlehem will be going to see an opening weekend showing of Jonah: A VeggieTales Movie.

Bob, Larry, Archibald, Junior, and the rest of the Veggies gang will be starring in their first motion picture release. Jonah is based on the Biblical story of Jonah and the whale and, like the VeggieTales videos, presents solid Biblical values in way that captivates and entertains children.

"The movie will be opening nationwide on Friday, October 4," says David Salerno, Bethlehem's Youth Coordinator, "so it really is something very special to be able to see this first-ever VeggieTales movie in the theater on its opening weekend."

"VeggieTales is so unique in its ability to captivate and entertain children, yet still present solid Biblical values. Big Idea Productions really has done something very special in the world of children's entertainment. They have put together a great group of very popular characters--what parent of a four-year-old has not heard of Bob the Tomato or Larry the Cucumber (a.k.a. Larry-Boy)? They are enjoying great commercial success with their videos, CDs and cassettes, board games, action figures, t-shirts, and other VeggieTales merchandise. And they accomplish all this while continuing to stand firm on their commitment to Biblical principles."

We hope your child will join us on Pioneer Clubs Movie Night Out for this very special movie.

Alphas and Omegas Enjoy Day of Fun, Night of Music at Kings Dominion

On Saturday, September 21, nineteen junior and senior high youth, leaders, and parents set off for Fall Celebration 2002 at Kings Dominion.

Fall Celebration is a day on which Christian youth groups descend on the theme park for a day of fun and an evening filled with Christian music. This year's artists featured Christian recording artists Jars of Clay, Stacie Orrico, and The Insyderz.

The group arrived in time for the park's opening at 10:30am and immediately began enjoying the park's attractions. Roller coasters were by far the most popular attraction, but many youth also rode the Midway-style rides, tried out the skill games, visited the video arcades, and even took in a show.

At 6:00pm, the group took their seats in the Kingswood Amphitheater for the Fall Celebration concert.

The concert began with The Insyderz, a energetic band with a musical style reminiscent of The Mighty Mighty Bosstones. Their desire to serve God was apparent throughout their lyrics.

Then, 16-year-old Stacie Orrico took the stage, performing her unique blend of pop and R&B styles. Between songs, Stacie presented Christian messages that related to the situations many 16-year-olds face in their daily lives.

Finally, Jars of Clay took the stage. For over an hour, Jars of Clay performed a mixture of songs from their recent CD, The Eleventh Hour, and past hits. The crowd's energy surged when the group performed a dramatic version of "Flood", their most recognizable radio single and "crossover" hit.

At 9:00pm, the group began to make their way back to Suffolk, tired from a full day of fun and music, and arrived at church to meet anxiously awaiting parents at about 11:30pm.
